NO BREAK IN ILLINOIS

Five More Ballots, No Result.

Three Propositions Presented Convention All Designed to End Contest.

Two of These Were Rejected, the Other Is Now Pending Before Committee.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 1.—The Republican State convention took five more ballots today without breaking the gubernatorial deadlock and without producing any material change in the standing of the candidates. Three important propositions were presented to the convention during the day, all designed to end the contest. Two were rejected, and the other is now before the Committee on Resolutions. These propositions were:

First. To discontinue the roll calls and vote by secret ballot. This came from a Deane delegate, H. H. Gross of Chicago, but was repudiated by Deane and most of the other candidates.

Second. To refer the gubernatorial election to the party through primaries to be held on the same day throughout the State. This was proposed by Yates, but the other candidates were a unit against the plan, and it was lost by a vote of 2 to 1.

Third. That the candidates be requested to release their delegates from further obligations and permit them to vote regardless of instructions. This proposition is pending before the Resolutions committee. Both Yates and Deane are opposed to it, and it will probably be beaten if it gets out of the committee.

Candidates Meet Committee.

The committee on resolutions was in session a good part of the day. The first occasion for its meeting was the reference to it of the Gross secret ballot resolution. The committee was practically unanimous in declaring the plan impracticable, owing to the absence of many delegates, but it was decided to get the candidates' attitude together and see if a scheme for ending the deadlock could not be agreed upon. Accordingly all of the candidates, by invitation, met with the committee in the afternoon. Meanwhile, the Yates and Deane advisory committees had separately decided against the secret ballot.

Yates and Deane Object.

All of the candidates except Yates and Deane said they were willing to abide by any action the committee might take. Judge Hamlin made the suggestion that the candidates release their instructed delegates. Gov. Yates said that only the constituents of the delegates, the men who had instructed them, could grant a release, and he questioned the power of the committee to take any action in that direction. Mr. Deane said that his delegates had been selected under the primary law and that he was not in a position to release them.

Committee Divided.

The committee was divided in sentiment, but it was finally agreed that Graeme Stewart of Chicago should draft a resolution requesting the candidates to release their delegates from further obligation so that this resolution should be presented to the convention and referred to the committee, which will make its report to-morrow morning, when the full committee will take action.

Two Proposals Tabled.

The secret ballot resolution upon being reported adversely, was tabled by the convention.

The resolution to refer the gubernatorial contest to a primary election of the Republican voters of the State was introduced by A. Handlin, Jones, a Yates leader, at the opening of the afternoon session of the convention. The resolution provided that the primaries be held on a day to be fixed by the State Central committee and that the expense thereof be borne equally by the candidates. A motion to table was made by Mayor John M. Raymond of Aurora. On a roll-call the resolution to table was carried—yeas 196, nays 407.

What Ballots Show.

Following are the results of to-day's first and last ballots:

Twenty-second ballot—Yates, 470; Lowden, 404; Deane, 391; Hamlin, 116; Warner, 40; Sherman, 52; Pierce, 28.

Sixty-sixth ballot—Yates, 474; Lowden, 411; Deane, 384; Hamlin, 119; Warner, 36; Sherman, 51; Pierce, 26.

At 4:30 p. m. the convention took a recess until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Resolution Not Binding.

The sub-committee of the committee on resolutions, to which was referred the Stewart resolution releasing delegates, late tonight decided to report the resolution favorably to the full committee. The latter body undoubtedly will pass out to the convention. The Yates and Deane leaders, after numerous conferences, have mutually decided to offer no opposition. In that case the resolution in the convention for the resolution will be unanimous. The prevalent opinion is, however, that as it is only the expression of an opinion or sentiment it will be disregarded by the delegates and will have no material effect on the deadlock.

Young Pulitzer Is in Trouble

Son of Owner of New York World Is Under Arrest in Montana for Killing Game.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.
HELENA, Mont., June 1.—With one accusation against him continued for the term, Ralph Pulitzer of New York City, son of the editor and owner of the New York World, was confronted with another charge in Helena to-night. Pulitzer came to Montana to stand trial on the charge of killing a mountain sheep in Teton county, out of season. The case against him was continued for the term yesterday. Tonight as the young millionaire was about to leave Helena he was served with papers announcing that he was under arrest for killing an antelope in Fergus county out of season. He promptly furnished bonds in the sum of $1000. Pulitzer and his attorney claim that he is a victim of persecution.

Several Utah Postmasters Happy

Prospector Sends Bullet Through Brain

Breaks Leg in Falling, and Rather Than Face Agony and Starvation, Shoots Himself.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.
BUTTE, Mont., June 1.—Word from Grangeville, Ida., says that the body of Samuel Benton, a miner who was lost in the Salmon River mountain has been discovered. An ugly bullet hole in the head told the cause of death. The searchers followed Benton's trail and found where he had fallen over a bluff near the river. In falling, Benton broke his leg and dragged himself to the river's edge and then back into the brush where he ended his life rather than face the agony from his broken leg and ultimate starvation.

Ex-Convict Again Behind the Bars

This Time He Is Accused of Assaulting a Little Girl at Rawlins, Wyoming.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.
RAWLINS, Wyo., June 1.—John J. Glenn, who, it is alleged, made the assault on the little eleven-year-old girl in a stable south of the tracks last Friday, was caught in Hanna yesterday afternoon and brought to Rawlins by Deputy Sheriff McAttee last night. He was evidently making his way out of the country or intended to on foot. He was released from the penitentiary only Friday morning, where he served two years for sodomy, committed in Albany county.

Glenn denies that he knows anything of the trouble, but he has been identified by C. W. Morgan and Martin Peterson, who were attracted to the stable at the time of the crime by the noise, but because the girl was so small could not see her and thought they were mistaken in supposing that anything was wrong.

Merger of Grain Interests.

TACOMA, Wash., June 1.—A merger of the Shurtz Flour company, the largest flour manufacturing firm on the Pacific coast, and the Tacoma Warehouse and Elevator company, one of the chief grain exporting companies of the Northwest, has been effected.

Pullman Robbers at Large.

PORTLAND, Or., June 1.—The detective department of this city has searched in vain for some trace of the negroes alleged by W. H. Aurelius, cashier of the local branch of the Pullman Palace Car company, to have held him up and robbed him of $2500 in the office of the company yesterday afternoon.

CITY OF LOGAN IS CAPTURED

Utah Commercial Men in Possession.

Citizens From the State Aid in Taking the Cache County City.

Keys of the Municipality Are Turned Over to the Victors, and Rejoicing Follows.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.
LOGAN, Utah, June 1.—The metropolis of northern Utah and the Cache valley was captured today by the commercial travelers of Utah and many prominent citizens of the State. The capitulation of the city came early, a special train bearing the attacking party arriving at the gates of the city at 11:45 o'clock, and after a brief parley with the citizens the latter surrendered and the outsiders, about 400 in all, took possession. In the party were two United States Senators, two members of the Salt Lake City Council and Held's band of Salt Lake.

The city had been handsomely decorated, residences and business houses presenting a handsome appearance, while the telephone and telegraph poles were wrapped in the national colors. On arrival at the depot a procession was formed in the following order and the march up-town followed:

Held's band.
United States Marshal Heywood.
Thomas Smoot.
Herschel Fuller, Jr.
Senators Kearns and Smoot and Representative Howells.
Salt Lake Councilmen.
Mayor and City Council of Logan.
Commercial travelers, marching three abreast and carrying yellow, blue and white streamers.
Logan fire department.
Aquila Nebeker, in an artistically decorated buggy.

Handsome Floats.

Twenty floats representing Cache county's varied industries and business houses among them the following: Cache Knitting works, Carden Jewelry company, a float containing half a dozen white swans, driven by a little girl in red, seated in a large shell; float driven by a bearded gentleman, co-op drug store with a handsome float decorated with a Japanese colony; Thatcher Music company, with an immense horn, candy floats from which sweets were dispensed free of charge to the little folks; also six bands and the usual hot-pot, making the spectacular pageant something like a mile and a half long.

On the train were the following well-known commercial travelers: Sperry Lawson, Will Patrick, George Griggs, Will Watson, C. R. Woolley, G. H. Heish, Ogle, Ben Bauer, W. DeWolf, H. G. Stockman, D. W. McKim, Joe Decker, W. J. Beattie, J. M. Clark, George Morgan, Andrew Lowe, Will C. Brier, J. C. Miller, H. J. Davis, A. C. Lambert, F. C. Bonvan, George Taysum, George Griggs, J. P. McElstrop, Will McAllister, H. Dunn, traveling passenger agent of the Oregon and the Cache county men and paid every attention to the party.

Senator Kearns Pays Tribute.

When the parade was over the visitors were welcomed to the city in a brief speech by Mayor Robinson. The Mayor introduced Senator Kearns, who made a short address in which he referred to the commercial men as the most successful hunters in the world. He paid a high tribute to the traveling men and carried the grip. His address was heartily applauded.

Senator Smoot Speaks.

Senator Smoot followed Senator Kearns and he, too, paid high tribute to the commercial men and their traveling. He proposed the sentiment, "Long live the commercial boys." He was cheered to the echo when he concluded.

Howells's Story.

Congressman Howells was given a warm welcome and in his address he eulogized the commercial men in fitting terms and congratulated the people on the visit of two United States Senators.

Hewlett's Talk.

President Hewlett of the Salt Lake City Council paid tribute to the graniary of Utah, and thanked the people of Cache valley for their hospitality. He read a poem dealing with "The Drummer Boy and His Grip."

Prizes Awarded.

The judges on the parade awarded the prizes as follows:

Best turn-out, $10—Hyrum De Witt.
Best float, prize $15—Divided between the Co-op Drug company and Lundstrom Furniture company.
Best mounted horse, prize $5—B. T. Piper.
Best mounted horse, prize $5—Miss Harris.
Best mechanic's outfit, prize $5—Presbyterian Co.'s paper-hanger.
Best decorated bicycle, prize $5—Miss Hattie Lawson.
The cash prize was not competed for and was awarded to the Croymon Jewelry company, close competitors for the first prize in float.

Ball Game Main Event.

The main event of the day was the ball game, and it proved to be the wildest, merriest, most exciting game ever held in Logan. The grandstand would not hold a fraction of those desiring admission. The grounds were a perfect mass of humanity. It is estimated that over 2000 people saw the game. The commercial travelers were victors by a score of 10 to 9.

Entertained at Luncheon.

Mayor Robinson entertained Senators Kearns and Smoot, Congressman Howells and the visiting Mayors and Councilmen at luncheon at the Agricultural college at 2 p. m. Congressman Howells did likewise at the B. V. college at 6:30 p. m. The ball in the large pavilion in the evening was a mass of humanity, where the visitors thoroughly enjoyed themselves until a late hour, and the cur-

WALKERS PLAN A GREAT BLOCK RUSSIA AGAIN

THAT a splendid drop-proof office building, probably eight or more stories in height, will be built by the J. R. Walker estate on the Walker bank corner, Main and Second South streets, is now admitted by persons interested, the only important question yet unsettled in connection with the matter being whether work will be begun this summer or whether it will be delayed until next fall or spring. So far as the promoters of the improvement are concerned, it is their desire to have the work started at the earliest possible date, it having been fully determined by them to build on that corner—one of the very best business locations in the city—a structure which shall be in keeping with the importance of the location and a distinct credit to the city. But there are several buildings on the property at this time and these buildings have tenants with unexpired leases, whose interests and desires it became necessary to consult before the new building on the site of the old ones could be started. Architects and contractors were consulted, who gave assurance that the great structure could be built without disturbing the present tenants in the prosecution of their businesses, and it is understood that all but one gave their consent to have the work proceed, but the protest of this one may result in delaying the work until his lease expires, which is in the coming spring.

Representatives of the estate had gone so far as to confer with an architect in regard to the plans for the contemplated structure, but when the situation as here outlined became known to them all arrangements were called off for the time being. They will be resumed just as soon as it becomes apparent that the work can be carried on without possible hindrance.

Senators greet each other cordially and ride in the parade together.

Smoot's Clever Reference.

Senator Smoot caught the crowd during his speech with a clever reference to Utah county, his home. He mentioned the matter of Utah county being the garden spot, and said: "Given you, Mayor, came from Utah county."

"Yes, but we made him," was a pleasant rejoinder.

The great State Agricultural college, an institution supported by the Government, was visited by hundreds of visitors. It is a magnificent building and it would be difficult to find a more charming spot for a Government building than where the Utah Agricultural college is located.

Anti-Mormon Fight in Idaho

Democratic State Convention Will Take Action, It Is Said, to Precipitate Contest.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.
BOISE, Ida., June 1.—At the State Democratic convention to be held in Weiser next Monday a resolution will be introduced at the instigation of Senator Dubois pledging the delegation at St. Louis to vote for a plank in the platform calling for an amendment to the National Constitution against polygamy. There has been considerable speculation as to what form the opposition to polygamy and other practices of the Mormons would take at the Weiser convention, and it is now stated on good authority it will be as outcries, with the possible addition of deprecation of the participation of the Mormon church in politics, although any declaration on that score may be deferred until the nominating convention. This action is expected to start the anti-Mormon fight in this State. It will be a live issue next campaign and not postponed for two years as some have thought. The Democratic leaders do not expect the Republican State convention to take any action antagonistic to the Mormons. At Weiser a strong fight will be made for the Weiser delegation, but it is expected it will be unsuccessful.

CLIMAX OF A YEAR'S WORK

Salt Lake Forest Reserves

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.
WASHINGTON, June 1.—This proclamation of the President regarding boundaries of lands in Utah to be set aside and known as the "Salt Lake Forest Reserves" was formally made public today. The lands thus set apart are in part covered with timber and it appears that the public good will be promoted by setting apart and reserving these lands as public reservations. The lands included in the proclamation occupy quite an extensive area about Salt Lake City and it is from this region the city obtains its water supply. Commissioner Richards of the land office was today officially advised as to the exact boundaries of the Salt Lake forest reserves.

MEETS DEFEAT

Kuropatkin Is Beaten Near Sumentz.

The Rev. William H. Fish offered the opening prayer. Miss Nellie L. Goss, representing the college class, followed with a well-prepared essay in which she forcibly discussed the subject "Another Side of the Question." She urged study and advised association along with it. "That man is successful in life who knows how to deal with and handle men. This he learns by associating with men and not by isolating himself from them. The acquisition of knowledge is not everything. It is only one of the many advantages offered in school life. School, in preparing us to live, should not rob us of the pleasure of living."

Told of the Other Side.

The closing scenes of the exercises were truly inspiring. At the word of President Kingsbury, the members of each class arose—the girls resplendent in their magnificent gowns and the boys neatly attired in their black suits. As each graduate stepped forward to receive his diploma, the large audience poured forth its generous applause.

All Russian Positions East of Hau-Cheng Have Been Abandoned.

Japanese Capture Several Guns, as Also Whole Squadron of Cossacks.

LONDON, June 1.—A special dispatch from Rome says a telegram has been received there from Tokio reporting that Gen. Kuropatkin's forces near Sumentz (probably Saimatsza or Simatsi).

All the Russian positions east of Hau-Cheng have been abandoned, according to the telegram; several guns have been taken and whole squadrons of Cossacks captured.

It is possible the news received in Rome refers to the fighting reported in last night's Associated Press dispatches from Liao Yang and St. Petersburg. These did not indicate a general engagement, but showed that a series of sharp engagements had taken place east of Simatsi, lasting from the morning of May 27 until daylight May 30, which resulted in severe losses on both sides and the retirement of the Russians upon Simatsi. The latter place is thirty-five miles north of Feng Wang Cheng.

Noted Character of Northwest Dead.

MILES CITY, Mont., June 1.—Hiram Crabtree, a noted character of the early days of the State of Washington, has been found dead in his cabin near this place. The father of Hiram Crabtree was responsible for the Yakima Indian war in 1855, branding an Indian chief with an ax handle because the latter attempted to drive him off a tract of land he had settled upon.

Butte Bank Increases Capital.

BUTTE, June 1.—The stockholders of the State Savings bank held a meeting to-night at which the stockholders decided to increase the capital stock from $100,000 to $200,000 and the surplus from $200,000 to $300,000, leaving $104,000 in undivided profits.

Salute From the State.

Gov. Wells addressed the graduates of the University of Utah at the thirty-fifth annual commencement which was held last evening in the Salt Lake Theater. For more than two hours educators and prominent men of the State poured out wholesome advice to the graduates and marked out for them the pathway which leads to success. At the conclusion of the exercises President Kingsbury presented the diplomas and conferred the degrees.

The theater was packed to its utmost by friends and relatives of the graduates. The students too were conspicuous, but the all-pervading solemnity of the occasion held them in complete silence. Only once did they break loose and send forth a volley of cheers and that was when George Hiler, the popular promoter of athletics at the hill school stepped forward to receive his degree of master of arts. On the stand sat the graduates, prominent men of the town, members of the board of regents and the faculty. Set neatly about on the stage were waving palms and green ferns. The tables and stand fairly teemed with red and white carnations and these combined with the magnificent floral bouquets of the graduates transformed the whole into a waving flower garden.

The closing scenes of the exercises were truly inspiring. At the word of President Kingsbury, the members of each class arose—the girls resplendent in their magnificent gowns and the boys neatly attired in their black suits. As each graduate stepped forward to receive his diploma, the large audience poured forth its generous applause.
